

1st September 2017

Going for Gold

Two of our FEC students paddled their way on an epic adventure down the river Thames for their Duke of Edinburgh Gold Award Expedition Section. They powered their way through wind and rain but still with spirits high and smiles on their faces, they paddled the bell boats, set up camp and cooked their meals.

Danielle Hawkins

